

MECHANICAL ENGINEER - POSITION OPEN IN DENVER

M.E. Group seeks a Mechanical Engineer

Ideal Candidate will possess:

- BSME or BSAE (required)
- 2 - 7 years experience
- EIT required, PE preferred
- Strong knowledge of sustainable mechanical systems and energy modeling principles
- Experience with LEED Certified projects
- Commissioning and/or energy auditing experience is preferred
- Strong CADD skills (required), BIM experience a plus, Revit experience preferred.

M.E. Group offers a positive and professional work environment. The firm values individuals with a strong desire to learn, grow, communicate and excel.

Our competitive compensation package includes:

- 1) Insurance: medical, dental, vision, disability, life, supplemental life
- 2) 401(k) with matching
- 3) Health club membership reimbursement
- 4) Tuition assistance
- 5) Three weeks paid time off plus eight paid holidays
- 6) Personal computer purchase assistance
- 7) Relocation reimbursement, signing bonus, and ownership opportunities.

M.E. GROUP is a mid-sized mechanical and electrical consulting engineering firm with multiple offices in the United States. The firm has established themselves as a leader in innovative building systems design, focusing on sustainability and energy-efficiency. The people of M.E. GROUP are among the most creative, outgoing, intelligent, and ethical individuals you will work with.

For more than 30 years; M.E. GROUP/design+green has grown with a reputation of being genuine, progressive advocates for high-performance green buildings. As we continue to grow we are seeking an outgoing, detail-oriented, and motivated Mechanical Engineer for our Denver office. This professional will have the opportunity to make a real contribution to the M.E. GROUP Team and should always be willing to promote M.E. GROUP/design+green in the best possible light.

Visit our website for more details, www.megroup.com